

TURTLE MOUNTAIN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

STUDENT RIGHT TO KNOW

The Turtle Mountain Community College is located in Belcourt, North Dakota on the Turtle Mountain Indian Reservation. TMCC has a faculty, staff and student population of approximately 750 people. Belcourt is a small rural community of 6,000 people, with a local tribal population of approximately 16,000 people.

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Any violations of campus regulations are reported to the TMCC employee assistance person on campus and the local police department. The campus security department routinely checks all inside and outside every hour to check the doors and lighting to ensure that adequate lighting is being provided. Each evening all doors are checked to ensure building security.

CAMPUS POLICY ON THE USE OF ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS BY STUDENTS, FACULTY AND STAFF:

The Turtle Mountain Community College prohibits the unlawful or unauthorized use, possession, storage, manufacture, distribution, or sale of alcohol beverages and any illicit drugs or drug paraphernalia in campus buildings, in the college vehicles, or at any college sponsored events held on or off campus, which are sponsored by students, faculty, and/or staff and their respective organizations. For the complete text of the college policy statement and regulations on the use of alcohol and other drugs by students, faculty, and staff, please visit with the Student Support Services Counselor/Advisor on campus.
