

Humanities Course Descriptions

HUM 101: Introduction to Humanities I (3)

Prerequisite: None

This course is designed to introduce beginning college students to the major disciplines of the humanities: literature, philosophy, history, religion, drama, music, and art.

HUM 102: Introduction to Humanities II (3)

Prerequisite: ENGL 110 College Composition I

This course is designed to introduce beginning college students to the major disciplines of the humanities: literature, philosophy, history, religion, drama, music, and art.

HUM 190: Traditional Use of Plants (2)

Prerequisite: ENGL 120 College Composition II

This course is intended as a humanities elective to introduce students to the gathering and use of natural plants by the American Indians.

HUM 202: Fine Arts & Aesthetics (3)

Prerequisite: None

This is a course designed to acquaint the student with the development of music and visual arts within the context of world civilization and seeks to develop aesthetic responsiveness. The art and music of the Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa will be an integral part of this course.